

Projects

by Zain - Sunday, July 17, 2011

<http://www.higherlevelcare.org/projects/>

Higher Level Care operate several semi-independent care homes in the London and South East area. For more information on individual projects please follow the links below.

Ismat House, Croydon - situated in South Croydon has been successfully running for over 10 years. It provides a family orientated living for up to 6 young people aged between 16-21, with on-site staff providing support on a 24-hour basis.

Sophia House, Croydon – situated in South Croydon, specialises in providing accommodation and support for a range of young people between the age of sixteen and eighteen.

Tahira House, Croydon – situated in West Croydon, Tahira House has been successfully running for 5 years. It houses up to 4 young people in self-contained flats with the aim of helping clients to move into independent living.

Sara House, Croydon - Sara House provides safe and supported accommodation for young mothers between the ages of 16 and 22, who are homeless or in housing need. The project offers low to medium support and as such occupants must be able to live with their child with a degree of independence.

Atiq House, West London - situated in Ruislip, Atiq House specialises in working with a range of young people. The house is designed to allow residents to acquire the responsibility of independent living while being supported by staff, in order to smooth the transition of moving from foster care or children homes.

Qasim House, West London - situated in Harrow, specialises in working with a range of young people. The house is designed to allow residents to acquire the responsibility of independent living while being supported by staff, in order to smooth the transition of moving from foster care or children homes.

Zain House, Ealing - situated in Northolt, specialises in working with a range of young people. The house is designed to allow residents to acquire the responsibility of independent living while being supported by staff, in order to smooth the transition of moving from foster care or children homes.

---

HigherLevelCare.org - The Company That Cares.